Devised and Directed by Jane McCulloch

“Their Finest Hour” deals with one of the most exciting periods in modern history.

Through the correspondence between Franklin Roosevelt and Winston Churchill, and using speeches, broadcasts and telephone calls; it charts the years between 1939 and 1945.

It not only takes us through the events of the Second World War, but also reveals the friendship and affection between these two great men.

For six years they held the destiny and survival of Western Civilization in their hands.

It shows the strains and struggles, moments of triumph and despair and above all the deep affection and admiration they held for each other.
